

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF ARKANSAS
TEXARKANA DIVISION

LINDA CLARK

PLAINTIFF

v.

Civil No. 04-4152

JO ANNE B. BARNHART,
Commissioner, Social Security Administration

DEFENDANT

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Plaintiff, Linda Clark, appealed to this Court from the denial of disability insurance benefits (hereinafter "DIB"), by the Commissioner of the Social Security Administration (hereinafter "Commissioner"). On October 25, 2005, the undersigned remanded this matter to the Commissioner for further consideration (Doc. #9 & 10).

Plaintiff's attorney, Charles Barnette, filed a Motion For Attorney Fees pursuant to The Equal Access to Justice Act (hereinafter the "EAJA"), on October 26, 2005 (Doc. #11). The Commissioner filed her Response on November 3, 2005 (Doc. #12). This matter is now ready for consideration.

28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(1)(A) provides that the Court must award attorney's fees to a prevailing social security claimant unless the Commissioner's position in denying benefits was substantially justified. The Commissioner has the burden of proving that the denial of benefits was substantially justified. Jackson v. Bowen, 807 F.2d 127, 128 (8th Cir.1986).

Plaintiff is the prevailing party in this matter. The Commissioner does not object to the award of reasonable attorney fees and expenses under the EAJA, does not object to the number of hours for which compensation is sought or the hourly rate requested by plaintiff's counsel. The Court construes this lack of opposition to the award of a reasonable fee as an admission that the government's decision to deny benefits was not "substantially justified."

An award of attorney's fees under the EAJA is appropriate even though at the conclusion of the case, plaintiff's attorney may be authorized to charge and collect a fee pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 406(b)(1). Recovery of attorney's fees under both the EAJA and 42 U.S.C. § 406(b)(1) was specifically allowed when Congress amended the EAJA in 1985. Gisbrecht v. Barnhart, 535 U.S. 789, 796, 122 S.Ct. 1817, 1822, 152 L.Ed.2d 996 (2002), citing Pub.L. 99-80, § 3, 99 Stat. 186 (1985).

To permit a fee award under the EAJA, assuming, of course, that the necessary standard is met, in addition to that allowed by the district court out of a claimant's past-due benefits does no more than reimburse the claimant for his or her expenses and results in no windfall for the attorney.

Meyers v. Heckler, 625 F.Supp. 228, 231 (S.D.Ohio 1985). Furthermore, awarding fees under both acts facilitates the purposes of the EAJA, which is to shift to the United States the prevailing party's litigation expenses incurred while contesting unreasonable government action. Id. See also, Cornella v. Schweiker, 728 F.2d 978 (8th Cir.1984).

In determining a reasonable attorney's fee, the Court will in each case consider the following factors: time and labor required; the difficulty of questions involved; the skill required to handle the problems presented; the attorney's experience, ability, and reputation; the benefits resulting to the client from the services; the customary fee for similar services; the contingency or certainty of compensation; the results obtained; and the amount involved. Allen v. Heckler, 588 F.Supp. 1247 (W.D.N.Y. 1984).

The statutory ceiling for EAJA fee awards is $125.00 per hour. See 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(2)(A). Plaintiff's attorney requests an award under the EAJA, at the rate of $140.00 per hour for the 10.3 hours which he asserts were devoted to the representation of plaintiff in this Court. In support of his request for a higher hourly rate, he has attached a copy of the Consumer Price Index indicating an increase in the cost of living (Doc. #11, Exhibit C).

Without objection, we note that an award based upon this hourly rate, reflecting an increase in the cost of living, will result in consistent hourly fee awards in cases in Arkansas. See Johnson v. Sullivan, 919 F.2d 503, 505 (8th Cir.1990). Thus, based upon the above factors, we find that an appropriate hourly rate for the award of attorney's fees in this case is $140.00 per hour.

Further, we have reviewed counsel's itemization of time and we find the time asserted to be spent in representation of the plaintiff before the district court, to be reasonable. Thus, we find that plaintiff's counsel is entitled to compensation under the EAJA for 10.3 hours.

Accordingly, we find that counsel is entitled to compensation for 10.3 hours at the rate of $140.00 per hour, for a total attorney's fee award of $1,442.00 under the EAJA.

_____The parties are reminded that the award herein under the EAJA will be taken into account at such time as a reasonable fee is determined pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 406, in order to prevent double recovery by counsel for the plaintiff.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 7th day of November, 2005.
